

THE KRISTIAN FREDRIKSON SCHOLARSHIP FOR DESIGN IN THE PERFORMING ARTS

APPLICATION FORM AND GUIDELINES

VISION

- Create an on-going memorial to the career of the late Kristian Fredrikson;
- Perpetuate the memory of his involvement in developing excellence in design for the performing arts;
- Provide career development opportunities to designers for the performing arts and the makers —craftspersons, technicians and specialists — who realise their vision;
- Create an opportunity to allow others to invest in the future of Australian design for the performing arts;
- Raise the profile of Australian design for the performing arts and its realisation in productions and performance.

THE SCHOLARSHIP

The Kristian Fredrikson Scholarship will provide $12,000 biennially to assist an Australian designer or maker for the performing arts (a craftsperson, technician or specialist working in the performing arts to realise the designer's vision) to study overseas, to further enhance their career. Should the recipient reside interstate a return economy air fare and accommodation will be provided in order for them to attend the award presentation.

The Kristian Fredrikson Scholarship will be financed through the Kristian Fredrikson Scholarship For Design In The Performing Arts Fund ("The Kristian Fredrikson Scholarship Fund").

AWARD CRITERIA

The recipient of The Kristian Fredrikson Scholarship will be selected by a panel of professional designers, directors, choreographers, and makers chosen by The Foundation Committee, which is subject to change for each application round.

The successful Applicant will be chosen by an Assessment Panel on the basis of a demonstrable history of outstanding achievements and commitment to their profession; originality, creativity, technical and interpretative skills and the viability of their study plan. There is no age limit. The scholarship will be awarded in April 2022 and announced in Melbourne during The Green Room Awards.

Applicants will be required to submit via email:

- a completed application form;
- a detailed curriculum vitae;
- examples of work including costume drawings or set concept renderings where applicable, as well as up to 3 images each from 5 separate productions, and links to online footage or websites;
- 3 letters of recommendation from collaborators;
- a detailed study plan noting what they hope to achieve and how it would benefit their career by travelling overseas to study;
- a simple breakdown of planned expenditure to ensure the applicant's intentions are achievable within their financial means.

And are required to be:

- a mid-career artist who has completed five professional (contracted to, paid commission by, a company) live stage productions or have demonstrated a proven record of professional activity over at least 3 years;
- an Australian citizen or have permanent residency status in Australia.

AWARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The successful applicant will need to:

- have taken up and completed their study trip within 2 years of receiving the scholarship. (If studying with an institution proof of acceptance is required);
- submit a report to The Kristian Fredrikson Scholarship Founding Committee upon completion of their study trip;
- donate an example of their work to The Beleura House and Garden Theatrical Collection;
- Provide on loan for temporary exhibition purposes, an A4 portrait photograph, a complete biography, samples or photographs of work.

The Kristian Fredrikson Scholarship For Design in The Performing Arts Selection Committee will not be liable for planning trip itineraries or travel insurance, or financially responsible beyond awarding the $12,000 to the successful applicant.

Please submit your application by email as a SINGLE PDF FILE with your name as the file title by Sunday 1st December 2021 at 5pm; to:
